EXPORT COUNCIL ANNOUNCES PREMIER'S NSW EXPORT AWARDS 2023 FINALISTS

The Export Council of Australia (ECA) is pleased to announce the finalists of the Premier's NSW Export Awards 2023.

The Premier's NSW Export Awards is entering its 61st year and will be looking to recognise innovative exporters across the state.

63 finalists have been shortlisted across 17 awards categories from a distinguished pool of applicants.

Export Council of Australia Chair Dianne Tipping applauded the efforts of everyone who nominated, and especially the high number of first-time applicants, saying that it demonstrated the strength of NSW exporters and the importance of the collaborative approach taken by the New South Wales Government, the ECA and all of its partners for the awards.

"Every year these awards provide exporters the opportunity to make their company and international business story known, and to acknowledge their contribution to NSW's economic future," Ms Tipping said.

"The finalists represent a wide range of industries and are a true reflection of the diversity of New South Wales businesses."

The winners will be announced at an Awards Gala ceremony on 23 October at the ICC Sydney. This year's theme will commemorate the 50th anniversary of diplomatic relations between Vietnam and Australia. The date is an important milestone and a great way to promote the many opportunities for Australian and Vietnamese businesses – such as the strategic partnership between NSW and Ho Chi Minh City province in Vietnam to boost trade and investment and deepen ties between the two states.

Ms Tipping would like to thank our partners Investment NSW, Australian Trade and Investment Commission, DHL Express, AusIndustry, Export Finance Australia, BDO, DFAT NSW, TradeWindow and Altios.

Winners in the National Award categories will represent New South Wales at the Australian Export Awards National Ceremony on 30 November 2023.
